DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

On February 26, 2020, Raymond Small filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that the flu vaccine caused him to develop "left shoulder inflammation, sensitivity to touch[,] and tenderness," which he alleges were "caused in fact" by the flu vaccine he received on October 1, 2018. Petition, ECF No. 1. On November 1, 2022, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 51.

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

<sup>2</sup> National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $27,450.73 (representing $26,618.50 for attorney's fees and $832.23 for attorney's costs). Petitioner's Application for Attorney's Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed May 15, 2023, ECF No. 56. In accordance with General Order No. 9, counsel for Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 5.

Respondent reacted to the motion on May 22, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, ECF No. 57. Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates. Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 56-2. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $27,450.73 (representing $26,618.50 for attorney's fees and $832.23 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Emily B. Ashe. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Decision.<sup>3</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.
